CHAPTER 587.

AN ACT to amend section 129 of the statutes, relating to executive counsel and advice and abolishing the position of state claim agent.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 129 of the statutes is amended to read: Section 129. The governor shall have an office in the capitol and shall have power to appoint a private secretary, who shall hold his office during the pleasure of the governor, and for the purpose of authentication shall be deemed a custodian of all deeds, patents, records, papers and documents lawfully deposited in the executive office. All patents, statements or lists of lands, or certified copies thereof, heretofore or hereafter transferred to the executive office pursuant to law shall be a part of the public records therein. He may appoint an executive clerk and fix his compensation, and may appoint an executive counsel to serve during each session of the legislature and for a period of thirty days thereafter at a salary not to exceed three hundred dollars per month, which compensation or salary shall be paid out of the state treasury, and charged to the general appropriation for the executive department.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved August 18, 1915.
