(Section 51.31) (1) Every company transacting the business of insurance against fire or by the risk of inland navigation or transportation, other than companies excepted under subsection 2 hereof, shall pay to the state on or before the thirty-first day of January in each year, a tax of two and three-eighths per centum on the amount of the gross premiums received for direct insurance, less return premiums and cancellations on direct insurance, by such company during the preceding year, in this state. Direct insurance shall include all insurance other than reinsurance. In case any company shall discontinue business in this state and reinsure the whole or a part of its risks without making payment of this tax, the company accepting such reinsurance shall pay the tax; and if several companies shall make such reinsurance the tax shall be apportioned between such companies in proportion to the original premiums upon the business, in this state, so reinsured by each such company. Upon the payment of the tax herein provided, such company may be licensed to transact its business until the last day of January in the ensuing year, unless sooner revoked or forfeited according to law.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

CHAPTER 604.

AN ACT to repeal expressly certain sections of the statutes that have been either superseded or repealed by implication; to repeal certain sections of the statutes that are duplicates of other sections; to repeal certain sections of the statutes and certain session laws that have been declared unconstitutional by the supreme court; to strike out and remove obsolete or dead matter from certain sections of the statutes; to correct typographical errors and misprints in certain sections of the statutes; to correct other errors and to renumber and relocate certain sections of the statutes that have been improperly classified.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 20 of the statutes is amended as follows: By striking from section 20.04 thereof the words: "and for the Wisconsin history commission;" also by striking from section 20.31 thereof the words: "The Wisconsin history commission is authorized to present to said board, from time to time, printer's copy of original historical matter, and of reprints of rare publications concerning the civil war;" also by striking from said section 20.31 the words: "of the original and reprint publications of the Wisconsin history commission, not more than two thousand five hundred copies;" also by striking from subsection (6) of section 20.34 thereof the words: "for Wisconsin history commission;" also by striking from subsection (7) of section 20.37 thereof the words: "Wisconsin history commission;" also by striking from section 20.41 thereof the words: "Wisconsin history commission;" also by striking from section 20.52 thereof the words: "for Wisconsin history commission."

SECTION 2. There are added to section 20.44 of the statutes three new subsections to read: (20.44) (5) The cost of linotype does not include the cost of composition, that being charged for separately. The linotype to be used for printing Wisconsin Statutes and Wisconsin blue books becomes the property of the state when ready for use. The printing board may, in its discretion, direct that the linotype to be used for printing Wisconsin Annotations or any volume of Wisconsin session laws also become the property of the state and be retained for printing further editions. Said board, in its discretion, may also require state printers to prepare stereotype plates from any linotype owned by the state, or from any other type used for public printing, and direct the printing to be done from such plates. The state printer furnishing any such linotype or plates must store and safely keep the same, and in case of injury thereto or destruction thereof by fire or otherwise, pay to the state the contract price thereof. All such linotype and plates when determined by the board to be obsolete or worn out shall thereupon be turned over to the state printer having the custody thereof, and he shall be charged in his accounts with the market value of the metal.

(6) State printers are required to eliminate all typographical errors from their work, notwithstanding the correction of proofs by the printing board.

(7) Work must be done promptly and all type used, all ink and other material furnished and all workmanship must be good and fit, and be satisfactory to the printing board; and in case of any substantial failure to comply with these provisions, the printing board may refuse to receive such defective or delayed printing, and procure what was ordered elsewhere, charging the state printer with the difference between the actual cost and the contract price thereof. But if immediate necessity, and lack of time to procure printing elsewhere compel the use of defective printing of the fourth class furnished by a state printer it shall be accepted without approval, and one-half of the contract price thereof shall be charged to him as liquidated damages for such breaches of his contract.

SECTION 3. Section 20.82 of the statutes is amended to read: 20.82 The superintendent of the state historical society is empowered to procure the exchange of public printing for such public documents produced in other states and countries as may be desirable to maintain or enlarge its historical, literary and statistical collections, and may make such distributions of public printing, with or without exchange, as may accord with interstate or international comity; the librarian of the state library shall procure so many of such exchanges as he is authorized by law to make, and the secretary of state, attorney-general, tax commission, railroad commission, state superintendent, state board of control, state board of health, state board of agriculture, commissioner of insurance, commissioner of banking, civil service commission, dairy and food commissioner, free library commission, industrial commission, state board of forestry and the commissioners for the promotion of uniformity of legislation in the United States, may procure by exchange such documents from other states and countries as may be needed for use in their respective offices. Exchange or distribution lists shall be filed with the superintendent of public property by the respective officers, boards and commissions so authorized to procure exchanges or make distributions, and the documents specified * * * therein shall be forwarded directly from said superintendent's office or shipping room, carriage charges payable by the state.

SECTION 4. The paragraph designations (1), (2), (3), (4) of subsection (2) of section 51.35 of the statutes are stricken out and the paragraph designations (a), (b), (c), (d) are inserted in place thereof respectively.

SECTION 5. Section 51.38 of the statutes is amended by striking therefrom the word "and" now located immediately after the word "thereof," and immediately before the word "the;" and by inserting in place thereof the word "of."

SECTION 6. That paragraph of section 113.06 of the statutes relating to the fourteenth circuit is amended by striking therefrom the following words: "and the jury at each of said terms shall not be called until the second day of the term."

SECTION 7. Subsection (4) of section 113.07 and section 113.075 are consolidated and amended to read: (113.07) (4) In every county having a population of three hundred thousand or more and containing an entire judicial circuit for which more than one judge is provided by law, the county board shall provide suitable court rooms and offices, the sheriff shall provide the necessary deputy sheriffs as attending officers and the clerk of the circuit court shall provide a sufficient number of deputy clerks for all the judges and branches of said court; * * * and the county shall pay to each such judge a salary of one thousand dollars per annum, payable monthly out of the treasury of said county, in addition to the salary paid him out of the state treasury.
