

He was a pioneer in the development of Northern Wisconsin and identified with every effort to build up his home city and county. He was interested in many local enterprises and was ever ready to lend his counsel, his work, and financial aid in the promotion of business and municipal affairs.

During his long service as a public servant the finger of suspicion was never once raised against him. His record was not only clear, but bright with honest endeavor and many brilliant achievements.

He was intensely patriotic and it was ever a source of deep regret that his enlistment was refused on behalf of the cause he loved so well.

His personal friends were legion and limited only by the number of his acquaintances.

Perhaps his strongest characteristic was loyalty to his friends, to his home city and to his country.

His passing marks the end of a career of uncommon usefulness, and the loss of an honest, efficient and respected citizen and public official; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Senate, the Assembly concurring, That this expression of the sentiment of the legislature be incorporated with the official proceedings of the day as a tribute to this highly respected citizen, and that a copy of this resolution suitably engrossed and properly authenticated, be transmitted to the family of the deceased.

[Jt. Res. No. 47, A.]

JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 5.

Relating to the concert held in the Assembly Chamber, March 10, 1915.

Resolved, by the Assembly, the Senate concurring, That a vote of thanks be extended to Mrs. Forest Eastman of New York City, harpist, and to Mrs. George B. Skogmo of River Falls, Wisconsin, contralto, for the delightful concert given by them for the entertainment of the members of the legislature, capitol employes and friends under the auspices of the Capitol Mutual Club, March 10, 1915.

Resolved, further, That a copy of this resolution be printed in the journal and a copy thereof presented to Mrs. Forest Eastman and to Mrs. George B. Skogmo.