CHAPTER 111

AN ACT to amend section 475 of the statutes, relating to loans by school districts.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 475 of the statutes is amended to read: Section 475. For the purpose of aiding in the purchasing of a site or the erection or purchasing of a schoolhouse or to equip a school building with a heating, lighting and ventilating plant or one or more such plants or to improve or equip such building in any other way, any school district, whether organized under general law, special law or charter, may, by vote of the electors at any annual or special meeting, called for that purpose authorize the district board, school board or board of education to borrow money, to an amount which shall not in any way exceed the limitations now provided by general law. The resolution to be voted upon shall be in writing, specifying the amount to be borrowed, the purposes for which to be borrowed, the rate of interest, and the time and manner of payment, which shall be in annual instalments, or otherwise, the last of which shall be payable in not exceeding fifteen years from the first day of February next ensuing. Such resolution shall be read to the meeting and the vote taken thereon by ballot. The ballots shall be written or printed, those in favor of the loan: "For the loan," those opposed: "Against the loan." The resolution and the vote shall be recorded, and if adopted by a majority, the district board, school board or board of education shall be thereupon authorized to borrow such sum of any person on such terms, and execute and deliver to the lender such obligation therefor and such security for payment, including a mortgage or pledge of any real or personal property of the district, subject to the direction contained in the resolution voted, as may be agreed upon, not prohibited by law, and shall also levy a tax to be annually collected thereafter, sufficient to pay the interest annually on such loan and the annual instalments of the principal, provided to be paid in each year.

Any bonds issued by any such school district, to secure any loan which bonds shall have been issued in conformity to law, including the provisions of this section, as amended are hereby declared to be and are valid claims and liens against the school district so issuing the same.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

CHAPTER 112

AN ACT to repeal chapter 68, laws of 1897, and to vacate a cemetery in the city of Watertown, Jefferson county, Wisconsin.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter sixty-eight of the laws of 1897 is repealed.

SECTION 2. The cemetery consisting of about two acres of land near the east end of, and on the north side of Western avenue in the former first ward, now the tenth ward of the city of Watertown, and further described as out-lot eighteen of said tenth ward, having been for many years past and now being in a ruined and abandoned condition, no person or association having had any charge or care thereof for the past twenty years, all but a very few of the remains having been removed therefrom, and being in the neighborhood of private residences and said city having for many years prohibited interments therein as being against the public health, the said cemetery is hereby vacated, and said city is authorized to take charge of the grounds therein, and after six months from the passage of this act to remove all the remains to suitable lots in Oak Hill cemetery, situated in the northeast quarter of section three, in township eight, north of range fifteen east, in the said city of Watertown, in Jefferson county, state of Wisconsin. Thereafter the use of said lands for interment shall be prohibited and the title thereto, free of any trusts heretofore existing, if any, shall be vested in the city of Watertown.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved April 24, 1917.
