CHAPTER 142

AN ACT to create section 904n of the statutes, relating to the regulation and planting of shade trees in villages in counties having a population of one hundred and fifty thousand or more, and providing for the apportionment of the cost thereof.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is added to the statutes to read: Section 904n. The village board of any village in any county having a population of one hundred fifty thousand or more may direct, regulate and require the planting and preserving of shade trees and shrubs, and the caring for the same in and along the public streets and on the public grounds of said village. It may also order shade trees to be set out and cared for along any street or portion thereof at the cost of the property fronting on such street; notice requiring said work to be done shall first be given, and upon the refusal of such owner to do such work, the village board may then cause the same to be done as herein provided, and may levy a tax for the whole or any part of the cost thereof upon the respective pieces of property adjoining said portion of said street, and every tax shall be entered by the clerk and collected, in the manner prescribed in paragraphs 2 and 3 of section 910 of the statutes.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved April 30, 1917.
