

ment certified by him of the valuation of all taxable property in that part of such district which lies in his town or village according to the last assessment roll, or, if the same shall have been equalized as provided in section 471, such equalized valuation thereof. The clerk of such joint school district shall forthwith certify to the county clerk every such valuation so certified to him.

(b) When such joint school district is composed of territory located in two or more counties the county clerk shall transmit to the secretary of state on or before the twentieth of September in every year a copy of the statements so certified to him by the district clerk. The secretary of state shall in every year furnish to the county clerk of each county in which lies any joint school district or part of a joint school district from which any such payment is to become due the total amount to be levied in his county upon such joint school district, at the same time that he certifies to that officer the state tax.

(c) The county clerk shall at the proper time after receiving such certificate from the secretary of state apportion the amount certified for collection to the proper towns and villages in accordance with the valuations certified to him by the district clerk; but it shall be carried out in a separate column, and the district from which it is due shall be specified. The town clerk shall charge and carry out such amount in his tax roll to the district or part of district to which it belongs in a separate column, and the tax shall be collected and paid with and in the same manner as the state tax.

CHAPTER 547

AN ACT to create section 1565o of the statutes, relating to the shipment of malt fermented liquors.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is added to the statutes a new section to be numbered and to read: Section 1565o. The owner or owners of any manufacturing plant engaged in the manufacture of distilled or malt fermented liquors in this state may, if located in territory in this state wherein no license is granted for the sale of any such liquors, any law to the contrary notwithstanding, continue to manufacture and sell the product of any such plant, if consigned to purchasers outside of such no license territory where the sale of any such liquors is authorized or permitted. Nothing in this act contained shall be construed or held to permit liquors so manufactured, to be sold or delivered for any purpose whatsoever in any city, town or village in this state in which no license is granted for the sale of such liquors, except for shipment by a common carrier to purchasers residing where such sale is authorized or permitted.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

CHAPTER 548

AN ACT to repeal sections 1489, 1491 and 4605 of the statutes; and to create subsection (5r) of section 1492ab, relating to the control of contagious and infectious diseases of animals, and prescribing a penalty.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Sections 1489, 1491 and 4605 of the statutes are repealed.

SECTION 2. A new subsection is added to section 1492ab of the statutes, to read: (Section 1492ab) (5r) Any person, firm, or corporation, who shall knowingly bring into this state, or transport or remove from one part of the state to another, or receive in charge, or exhibit at any fair, any animal afflicted with or that has been exposed to any contagious or infectious disease, except as authorized by the rules, regulations, or orders of the department of agriculture, commissioner of agriculture, or state live stock sanitary board; or who, knowing or having reason to suspect that there is any such animal upon his premises or upon any premises of which he has control, shall fail to report such fact as required by law, or who shall attempt to conceal the existence of such disease upon such premises, or who shall permit such animal to run at large or come in contact with other animals susceptible to such disease; or who shall violate any provision of this section or any rule, regulation or order issued pursuant thereto by the department of agriculture, commissioner of agriculture, or state live stock sanitary board, shall be liable to any person injured thereby for the damages by him sustained, and shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty dollars nor more than two hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not less than thirty days nor
