JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 5.

Extending thanks and commendation to the Wisconsin National Guard.

WHEREAS, On the 18th day of June, 1916, on account of the apparent probability at that time of further aggression upon the territory of the United States by armed Mexican forces, the President of the United States did call forth organized militia troops, and among them all the organized units of the Wisconsin National Guard except one company of infantry; and

WHEREAS, The members of the Wisconsin National Guard, officers and men, responded to the call with such unanimous promptness, patriotism and loyalty as to arouse the admiration of the people of this state; served, until released from the call, well and faithfully and in such manner as to gain the distinguished praise of all of their commanding officers; and, further, so demeaned themselves as to win the respect and regard of the civil authorities and the citizens of each community where they were at any time stationed,

Now, Therefore, be it Resolved, by the Assembly, the Senate concurring, That this legislature, for and on behalf of the people of the State of Wisconsin, do publicly thank and commend the Wisconsin National Guard both as soldiers and as citizens in that they have by their spirit and conduct set so high a mark and kept up so well the standard of Wisconsin citizen-soldiership.

Be it further Resolved, That this resolution be duly entered in the journals of the two houses, and that a copy thereof, suitably engrossed and duly signed by the Governor of the state and by the presiding officers of the two houses, and duly attested by the chief clerks thereof, be duly forwarded to each military organization in the state.

JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 6.

Relating to the public services and death of the late Justice W. H. Timlin.

Justice William Henry Timlin of the Wisconsin Supreme Court died at his home in Milwaukee on August 21, 1916. Justice Timlin was of Wisconsin birth, having been born at Mequon, Ozaukee county, in May, 1852. He was denied the advantages of a college education, but by his untiring energy and his wide reading he overcame this obstacle and was admitted
