CHAPTER 37.

AN ACT to amend the last paragraph of section 926—11 of the statutes, relating to the rate of interest on municipal refunding bonds.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The last paragraph of section 926—11 of the statutes is amended to read: (Section 926—11) (last paragraph) Such funding or refunding bonds may run not exceeding twenty years from the time of their issue and may be negotiable coupon bonds payable to bearer at a rate of interest not exceeding
* * * six per cent per annum. Such bonds may be sold at not less than par and accrued interest and the proceeds used to pay the liability for which they were issued, or may be exchanged for the evidence of liability replaced by them. No such bond shall be issued unless authorized by an ordinance adopted by a vote in favor of the same by at least three-fourths of all the members of the common council elect, said vote to be at a regular meeting not less than one week after the proposed ordinance shall have been published in the official paper of the city. All such bonds issued shall be payable at the option of the city in annual installments, the last installment being payable not more than
