CHAPTER 584.

AN ACT to create section 764a of the statutes, relating to certain approved forms of instruments of conveyancing, and for fees for recording the same and for fees for recording other instruments not in accordance with such forms.

SECTION 1. A new section is added to the statutes to read:
Section 764a. 1. The several forms of deeds, mortgages, land contracts, assignments, satisfactions and other conveyancing instruments heretofore prepared by the Wisconsin state register of deeds association, denominated "State of Wisconsin" forms and numbered 1 to 60, both inclusive, and now on file with the secretary of state, are hereby approved and recommended for use in the state of Wisconsin. Such forms shall be kept on file with and preserved by the secretary of state as a public record.

2. The secretary of state shall upon sufficient copies thereof being furnished to him without expense, on or before August 1st, 1919, thereupon certify the same to be correct copies of the forms on file in his office, approved by section 764a of the statutes, and transmit a set of the same to each register of deeds in the state of Wisconsin; and each such register of deeds shall thereafter preserve the same on file in his office for the convenient use of the public.

3. Whenever after January 1st, 1920, there shall be offered for record any instrument for which a form is hereby approved which varies from such approved forms, then in addition to the regular recording fee, an additional charge for recording shall be made by such register of deeds equal to 50 per cent of the recording fees prescribed by section 764 of the statutes.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

CHAPTER 585.

AN ACT to create section 2024—77s of the statutes, relating to authority of trust companies incorporated under the laws of other states to act as executors or trustees, or both, when appointed as such by residents of Wisconsin.

SECTION 1. A new section is added to the statutes to read: Section 2024—77s. 1. Any trust company, incorporated under the laws of any other state, named by any resident of this state, as executor or trustee, or both, under his last will and testament or any codicil thereto, may be appointed and may accept appointment and may act as executor of, or trustee under, the last will and testament of any such person in this state, or both, provided trust companies of this state are permitted to act as such executor or trustee, or both, in the state where such foreign corporation has its domicile, and such foreign corporation shall have executed and filed in the office of the commissioner of banking a written instrument appointing such commissioner in his name of office its true and lawful attorney upon whom all process may be served in any action or proceeding against such executor or trustee, affecting or relating to the estate represented or held by such
