CHAPTER 95.

AN ACT relating to the state indebtedness to the Normal school fund.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The state indebtedness of five hundred fifteen thousand seven hundred dollars to the Normal school fund, as adjudged by the supreme court April 15th, 1916, in state ex rel. Owen vs. Donald, and evidenced by certificates of indebtedness executed pursuant to chapter 25 of the general laws of 1866, and of record in the offices of the secretary of state and state treasurer, shall be dealt with according to the provisions of such chapter, as heretofore, until paid or otherwise ordered by the legislature.

SECTION 2. The further indebtedness of the state to the Normal school fund of nine hundred ninety-six thousand, five hundred ninety-one dollars and seventy-seven cents, as adjudged by the supreme court in state ex rel. Owen vs. Donald, on account of money and property belonging to such fund which was diverted therefrom to state purposes, making a total of state indebtedness to such fund of one million five hundred twelve thousand two hundred ninety-one dollars and seventy-seven cents, shall be evidenced on the records of the secretary of state and the state treasurer by the execution and filing of a certificate or certificates in the same form and terms, as to interest and otherwise, as the certificates of indebtedness now owned by the Normal school fund under said law of 1866, and such law, so far as applicable, shall apply, in all respects, to the certificate or certificates hereby provided for evidencing said indebtedness to said fund of nine hundred ninety-six thousand, five hundred ninety-one dollars and seventy-seven cents as aforesaid.

SECTION 3. On the first due date of interest on the certificate or certificates hereby provided for, the secretary of state shall compute interest at the rate provided for therein from the date of the judgment in the supreme court, to wit, the 15th day of April, 1916, up to and including the 31st day of May, 1919, in harmony with said law of 1866, and place the amount of such interest to the credit of the normal school fund, and the same and subsequent annual interest payments shall be treated as required in case of the certificates heretofore issued under said law of 1866 to said fund.

SECTION 4. The creation of evidence of indebtedness on the records in the offices of the secretary of state and the state treasurer in harmony with said judgment of the supreme court and hereby provided for, shall not change or impair the lien of the aforesaid indebtedness of nine hundred ninety-six thousand, five hundred ninety-one dollars and seventy-seven cents, as adjudged by the supreme court, in respect to the one hundred fifty-seven thousand, ninety-one and forty-four one hundredths acres of land the state holds which were acquired with the money which the court determined belonged to the Normal school fund; but such lien shall remain, as adjudged by the court, until such indebtedness shall have been paid; provided, that any of such lands may be sold at the fair market value thereof, as the legislature may direct, freed from said lien, the proceeds of any such sale to be paid, within one week after receipt, into the Normal school fund, to apply in payment of such indebtedness.

SECTION 5. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.
