[Jt. Res. No. 115, S.]

JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 80.

To create a joint legislative committee to investigate into the operation of the different systems of land registration and into the advisability of the adoption of some form of land registration in this state and to report thereon to the 1921 legislature.

Resolved by the senate, the assembly concurring, That a joint legislative committee to consist of two senators to be appointed by the presiding officer of the senate and three assemblymen to be appointed by the speaker of the assembly, be and is hereby created to investigate generally into the operation of the different systems of land registration and into the advisability of adopting some form of land registration in this state. Such committee shall report the results of its investigations and submit its recommendations to the 1921 legislature. If such committee recommends the adoption of some form of land registration in this state, it shall submit with such report and recommendations such bill or bills as it may deem necessary. Be it further.

Resolved, That such committee be and hereby is authorized to employ and fix the compensation of such persons, and to do all such things, as may be necessary to fully perform the duties hereby enjoined; that the respective state officers and departments be and hereby are directed to render such aid and assistance to such committee as may from time to time be requested by it; and that each member of such committee, and each person employed by it, shall be reimbursed by the state for his actual necessary expenses incurred in the performance of his duties hereunder, but no member of the committee shall be otherwise compensated for services rendered.

[Jt. Res. No. 101, A.]

JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 81.

Referring to the next legislature two proposed amendments to the constitution.

WHEREAS, A majority of the members elected to each of the two houses of the legislature have by joint resolution No. 35, A., agreed to the following proposed amendment to section 5 of article V of the constitution: (Article V) Section 5. The governor shall receive, during his continuance in office, an annual compensation of not less than five thousand dollars, to be fixed by law, which shall be in full for all traveling or other expenses incident to his duties. The compensation prescribed for governor immediately prior to the adoption of this amendment shall continue in force until changed by the legislature in a manner consistent with the other provisions of this constitution.

WHEREAS, A majority of the members elected to each of the two houses of the legislature have by joint resolution No. 21, A., agreed to the following proposed amendment to article XI of the constitution: (Article XI) Section 3b. Any city, in addition to the indebtedness of five per centum authorized by section 3 of this article, may incur an indebtedness not exceeding another five per centum on the value of the taxable property in such city for the purpose of acquiring or constructing street railway properties, or properties for the production, transmission, delivery or furnishing of light, heat, water or power to the public.

Resolved by the Assembly, the Senate concurring, That these two proposed amendments to the constitution be referred to the legislature to be chosen at the next general election, and that the same be published for three months previous to the time of holding such election.
