CHAPTER 368.

AN ACT to provide an additional judge of the superior court of Dane county and to amend chapter 136 of the laws of 1917, and acts amendatory thereof in relation to such judge; and to amend the introductory paragraph and subsection (1) of section 20.66 of the statutes, relating to the salaries of judges and making an appropriation.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. On the first Tuesday of April, A. D. 1922, there shall be elected in the county of Dane an additional judge of the superior court of Dane county who shall hold his office from the first Monday in July, 1922, to the first Monday of January, 1927, and until his successor is elected and qualified.

SECTION 2. Section 6 of chapter 136, laws of 1917, is amended to read: (Ch. 136, laws of 1917) Section 6. 1. On the first Tuesday of April, A. D. 1922, and on the first Tuesday of April every six years thereafter, and on the first Tuesday of April, A. D. 1926, and on the first Tuesday of April every six years thereafter, there shall be elected in the county of Dane, in the same manner as county judges are elected, a judge of the superior court * * * each of whom shall hold his office for the term of six years thereafter, beginning the first day of January succeeding his election and continue until his successor is elected and qualified, and shall be subject to removal from office in the manner provided by the constitution of this state for the removal of judges of the circuit court. The nominations of candidates for superior judges shall be made in the same manner as provided for county judges.

2. The superior judge who is oldest in service shall be the senior judge of said court. He shall make provision either by general rules or by special orders for the division of the work of said court.

SECTION 3. Any and all provisions of chapter 136 of the laws of 1917, or acts amendatory thereof with reference to the powers, duties, rights or salary of the superior judge of Dane county shall from and after the first Monday of July, 1922, be taken to refer to each of the superior judges of Dane county, or either of them, as the case may be; except that all power of appointment of regular officials of the superior court of Dane county and the power to make and promulgate rules therefor shall be vested in the senior superior judge, and except that the salary of the senior superior judge from and after the first Monday of July, 1922, shall be paid by the state.

SECTION 4. The introductory paragraph, and subsection (1) of section 20.66 of the statutes are amended to read: (20.66) (Introductory paragraph) There are appropriated from the general fund, annually, such sums as may be necessary, for salaries and expenses of the judges and reporters of the circuit courts, and the salary of the senior superior judge of Dane county, upon vouchers duly verified and certified by said judges, respectively, and filed with the secretary of state, as follows:

(1) To each judge of a circuit court, during terms of office commencing before the first day of July, 1919, fifty-five hundred dollars, and, during terms of office commencing after the first day of July, 1919, sixty-five hundred dollars. Each circuit judge shall also be reimbursed for necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of judicial duty outside his home county, and in attending meetings of the board of circuit judges. To the senior superior judge of Dane county, beginning the first Monday of July, 1922, five thousand dollars.

SECTION 5. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

CHAPTER 369.

AN ACT to create subsection (10) of section 40.16 of the statutes, relating to transportation of pupils in union free high school districts.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is hereby created a new subsection to be numbered and to read: (40.16) (10) (a) In case the parent or guardian of any child qualified to attend a high school resides in a union free high school district more than three miles from the high school in said district, such parent or guardian may transport or provide for the transportation of such child to and from the union free high school in a safe, comfortable and convenient manner, and the union free high school district shall pay such parent or guardian for such transportations as follows: for each child residing more than three and not more than four miles, forty cents per day; for each child residing more than four and not more than five miles, sixty cents per day; for each child residing more than five miles, eighty cents per day; provided the union free high school district cannot be compelled to pay such compensation on account of any child who has not attended at least six months while being transported.

(b) If, in the judgment of the union free high school board, it is to the interest of the district to provide board and lodging in
