

(Section 1728c—1) 1. Whenever any day vocational school shall be established in any town, village or city in this state for minors, working under permit as now provided by law, every such child residing or employed within any town, village or city in which any such school is established, who has not completed four years of work above the eight elementary grades, and who * * * *is not in attendance at some other public, private or parochial school at least half time shall attend such school not less than half time in the daytime until the end of the school term, quarter, semester or other division of the school year in which he is sixteen years of age, and after that eight hours a week until the end of the term, quarter, semester or other division of the school year in which he is eighteen years of age, * *  for at least eight months in each year and for such additional months or parts thereof as the other public schools in such city, town or village are in session in excess of eight during the regular school year, or the equivalent as may be determined by the local board of industrial education, and every employer shall allow all minor employes a reduction in hours of work of not less than the number of hours the minor is by law required to attend school. Whenever the working time and the class time coincide, such reduction in hours of work shall be allowed at the time when the classes which the minor is by law required to attend are held.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication, but in cities in which suitable quarters are not available, and in cities in which new buildings are in process of erection, the state board of vocational education may, for a reasonable period not to exceed beyond September 1, 1923, provide for temporary continuation of the present legal requirements and a gradual transition to the requirements established by this act.
