county board, the state superintendent shall issue a certificate of establishment of a county free high school in such county.

- (2) The county board shall select and purchase the site for such school and shall supervise the construction thereof.
- (3) The county board shall elect a school board of three members, which shall elect its own officers and have charge of the administration of such school. The county board shall designate the terms of the members of the school board, fill vacancies therein and discharge any member thereof, and fix the compensation of such members.
- (4) Upon the issuance of the certificate of establishment to a county free high school, except as otherwise provided in this section, such school shall possess all the rights, powers, privileges and authority, and shall be subject to all of the liabilities of a union free high school.
- (5) Such county free high school shall be entitled to share in state aid as in the case of district free high schools.
- (6) Any student eligible to attend such county free high school, but who lives nearer to some other high school, may attend such other high school, and in such case shall be entitled to have his tuition paid by the county free high school district.

CHAPTER 434.

AN ACT to amend subsection (2) of section 98.07 of the statutes, relating to sale of milk products to which has been added any fat or oil.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Schate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Subsection (2) of section 98.07 of the statutes is amended to read: (98.07) (2) It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation, by himself, his servant or agent, or as the servant or agent of another, to manufacture, sell or exchange, or have in possession with intent to sell or exchange, any milk, cream, skim milk, buttermilk, condensed or evaporated milk, powdered milk, condensed skim milk, or any of the fluid derivatives of any of them to which has been added any fat or oil other than milk fat, either under the name of said products or articles or the derivatives thereof or under any fictitious or trade name whatsoever. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the manufacture, sale, exchange or possession with intent to sell, of proprietary foods containing milk or skim milk in powdered form, when said proprietary foods are plainly labeled so as to show their composition and the fact that they are to be sold and used exclusively as prescribed by physicians in the feeding of invalids, infants and young children.
