CHAPTER 203.

AN ACT to amend section 192.28 of the statutes, relating to duties of railroads and providing a penalty.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 192.28 of the statutes is amended to read: 192.28 Every railroad corporation shall erect and maintain such sufficient guards or blocks at the front and rear of every frog and of every guard rail in its track, * * * as in either case the railroad commission shall prescribe or approve. It shall also erect and maintain such safety clamps or other devices as the commission shall prescribe or approve at all mainline switches except where the commission shall, in writing, approve the omission thereof. If any such corporation, its officers, agents, or servants shall violate or fail to comply with any of the provisions of this section or fail to sufficiently guard such frogs or guard rails, it shall, for each and every such violation or failure, forfeit not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, one-half to the person prosecuting, and shall in addition be liable to the person injured for all damages sustained thereby, whether such person shall be a servant or agent of such corporation or not, and notwithstanding such violation or failure shall arise or occur through the negligence of some other agent or servant thereof.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.
