

manner as to safeguard the interests of the public; or has violated any provisions of this section. If a broker be a company it shall be sufficient cause for the suspension or revocation of a broker's license that any officer, director or trustee of the company, or any member in case of a partnership, has been guilty of any act or omission which would be cause for refusing a broker's license to such person as an individual. A copy of the complaint, together with notice of suspension of the license if ordered by the board, shall forthwith be served personally or by mail upon the real estate broker or salesman complained against, and in case the complaint is against a salesman a copy of the complaint and notice shall also be served upon the broker for whom he is acting.

(18) No order revoking a license shall be made until after a public hearing or hearings held before the board, or before any member thereof, or before any duly authorized employe whose report the board shall have adopted. Such hearing or hearings shall be held in the county wherein the real estate broker complained of or whose salesman is complained of has his place of business, and shall not be held until at least ten days after service of the copy of the complaint as required in subsection (17). In the event that said broker or salesman is a nonresident, such hearing shall be held at such place as may be designated by the board.
