

temporary alimony or support of children shall direct the payment of all such sums to the clerk of the * * * court for the use of the person or persons to whom the same has been awarded. A party securing an order for temporary alimony or support money shall forthwith file said order, together with all pleadings in the action, with the clerk of the * * * court. Said clerk shall disburse the money so received pursuant to said judgment and order and take receipts therefor. All moneys received or disbursed pursuant to this rule shall be entered in a record book kept by said clerk, which shall be open to the inspection of the parties to the action or of their attorneys. If the alimony or support money adjudged or ordered to be paid shall not be paid to the clerk at the time provided in said judgment or order, the clerk and the divorce counsel of said county shall take such proceedings as shall be directed by the court or presiding judge to secure the payment of such sum. Copies of any order issued to compel such payment shall be sent to counsel who represented the party who was awarded alimony or support money. In case any fees of officers in any proceedings taken by the divorce counsel, including the compensation of the divorce counsel at the rate of fifteen dollars per day, be not collected from the person proceeded against, the same shall be paid out of the county treasury upon the order of the presiding judge and the certificate of the clerk of the court.

CHAPTER 323.

AN ACT to amend subsection (1) of section 231.32 of the statutes, relating to trust fund investments.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Subsection (1) of section 231.32 of the statutes is amended to read: (231.32) Every executor, guardian, or trustee, except where it is otherwise expressly directed by the will or instrument of trust, if any, may invest trust funds in bonds or interest bearing notes or obligations of the United States, and also in the bonds or interest bearing obligations of any state of the United States, except the states of Nevada and Wyoming, and except also the present territories of the United States (and such territories shall continue to be excepted after admission to statehood); in the bonds which are a direct obligation of any city, town, village, county or school district in the state of Wisconsin, and also in the bonds which are a direct obligation of any city in any other of the states included herein, having a population of not less than twenty-five thousand and also in the bonds which are a direct obligation of any county in any other of the states included herein having a population of not less than thirty-five thousand, provided that such city or county shall not have defaulted in the payment of any of its bonded indebtedness during ten years immediately preceding such investment, and provided further that the existing indebtedness of any such city or county be restricted under the laws of the state wherein it may be situated, to a sum in the aggregate not exceeding five per centum on the value of the taxable property therein, to be ascertained by the last assessment for state and county taxes previous to the incurring of such indebtedness; in the paid up stock of any building and loan association organized under the laws of this state; in the bonds of the federal or joint
