

No. 548, S.]

[Published July 22, 1927.]

CHAPTER 427.

AN ACT to appropriate a sum of money named therein to reimburse Honorable Henry Johnson for amounts paid by him pursuant to a judgment secured by the Maryland Casualty Company for official acts performed by him as state treasurer. The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is appropriated from any moneys in the general fund not otherwise appropriated, the sum of nine hundred fifty-five dollars and sixty-eight cents to Honorable Henry Johnson, former state treasurer, to reimburse him for amounts paid by him pursuant to a judgment secured against him in the case of the Maryland Casualty Company against Henry Johnson, such judgment being for attorneys' fees and costs incurred by said company as a surety on the official bond of said Henry Johnson while state treasurer, in an action brought by the state of Wisconsin against the Jackson State Bank and against Henry Johnson and his sureties on his official bond, which suit was decided in favor of the said Henry Johnson.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Deposited without approval of Governor.

No. 386, A.]

[Published July 23, 1927.]

CHAPTER 428.

AN ACT to provide for the use of the proceeds of the sale of school property in cities of the first class.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Whenever in any city of the first class, however incorporated, any real estate used for school purposes is sold, the proceeds of said sale shall not go into the general city fund, but shall become part of any fund to be applied on the purchase of real property to be used for school purposes.

SECTION 2. All acts and parts of acts contravening the provisions of the preceding section are repealed.
