CHAPTER 62.

AN ACT to amend section 340.56 of the statutes, relating to kidnaping.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 340.56 of the statutes is amended to read: 340.56 Any person who shall take, carry away, decoy, entice away or secrete any child under the age of sixteen years, without the consent of the parent, guardian, or lawful custodian of said child, with the intent of causing any relative or other person to pay or offer to pay any sum as ransom or reward for the return or release of such child, shall be deemed guilty of a felony and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison during the life of the person so convicted. If no permanent injury results to the person wrongfully enticed away or secreted, the penalty shall be imprisonment in the state prison for not less than fifteen years nor more than thirty years. Upon the trial thereof the consent of the parent, guardian, or lawful custodian of such child shall not be a defense unless it shall be made satisfactorily to appear that such consent was not obtained by fraud, duress, or threats.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved April 23, 1927.
