CHAPTER 88.

AN ACT to create subsection (4) of section 180.05 of the statutes, relating to curative provisions affecting the organization of corporations.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new subsection is added to section 180.05 of the statutes to read: (180.05) (4) (a) When, in the organization of corporations under any statute of this state, there may have been a failure to record in the office of the register of deeds of the county in which such corporation is located a verified copy of the articles of organization of such corporation and a certificate of the secretary of state showing the date when such articles or a verified copy thereof were filed and accepted by the secretary of state, within thirty days of such filing and acceptance, and when such a copy and certificate have been subsequently recorded by such register of deeds, then such failure to record such verified copy and certificate within thirty days of the filing and acceptance of the original articles or a verified copy thereof by the secretary of state shall not affect the validity of the corporation, but the same shall be a body corporate the same as if the same had been recorded as provided by statute.

(b) All transfers of real estate to, and all acts done by any such corporation between the time of the filing of such original articles or a verified copy thereof with the secretary of state and the recording of a verified copy of such articles and the certificate of the secretary of state as provided by statute, by the register of deeds of the county where such corporation is located, are hereby ratified, legalized and confirmed.

(c) Paragraphs (a) and (b) shall apply only to corporations which have filed and recorded their articles of organization prior to the passage and publication of this subsection.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

CHAPTER 89.

AN ACT to create subsection (1a) and to amend subsection (2) of section 43.32 of the statutes, relating to boards of county traveling libraries.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new subsection is added to section 43.32 of the statutes to read: (43.32) (1a) The library board of a county traveling library located in a county containing a city of the second class, may, at the option of the county board, consist of the county superintendent of schools, ex officio, and three members of the county board appointed by the chairman on or before the first day of May in each year.

SECTION 2. Subsection (2) of section 43.32 of the statutes is amended to read: (43.32) (2) For the purpose of such county traveling libraries any county may appropriate * * * annually not to exceed * * * one thousand dollars, for the purchase of books, for repairs, rebinding, and the cases and freight or express on same. Such money shall be retained by the treasurer of the county in a separate fund. It shall be paid out on order of the library board, signed by its president and secretary. All the books, property, moneys, donations, devises, bequests or gifts bought or appropriated or given for the pur-
