CHAPTER 395.

AN ACT to confer civil and criminal jurisdiction on the county court of Juneau county.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is hereby conferred upon the county board of Juneau county, jurisdiction of the following actions, matters, and proceedings, to-wit:

(1) The said county court and the presiding judge thereof shall have and exercise all of the jurisdiction, powers and authority in criminal actions and proceedings within said county which are possessed by justices of the peace and the courts thereof, including offenses against the ordinances of Juneau county, and of cities and villages therein.

(2) The said county court and the presiding judge thereof shall have and exercise jurisdiction in all civil actions, special proceedings in law and equity and all actions for the recovery of personal property, with damages for the unlawful taking or detention thereof, where the value of property in controversy, or the amount of money claimed or sought to be recovered, after deducting all payments and set-offs, shall not exceed five hundred dollars; and actions brought for any breach of recognizance given in said court.

SECTION 2. The processes, proceedings and practice of the courts of justices of the peace, as far as practicable, shall be the processes, proceedings and practice of the county court of Juneau county; and all provisions of law in force and effect relating to justices of the peace and to the trial of actions and proceedings therein shall apply to the said court, and the judge thereof, in the exercise of the jurisdiction conferred by this act, except as herein otherwise provided.

SECTION 3. Appeals from judgments and orders of the county court in civil and criminal actions and proceedings shall be taken
