CHAPTER 8.

AN ACT to detach certain territory from the towns of Dallas and Dovre in Barron county, Wisconsin, and to reorganize said towns and create a new town therein to be known as the town of Sioux Creek.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. All that territory lying in the township number thirty-two north, of range eleven west, being a part of the towns of Dallas and Dovre in Barron county in the state of Wisconsin, is detached from the towns of Dallas and Dovre and is constituted a separate town to be known and designated as the town of Sioux Creek in said county.

SECTION 2. The first town meeting of said town of Sioux Creek shall be held on the first Tuesday of April, 1929, in the schoolhouse situated in section three, township thirty-two north, of range eleven west, state of Wisconsin, and known as Pleasant Hill schoolhouse in joint school district number three, and the qualified electors of such town shall by ballot elect town officers for their town and exercise all other powers and make such provisions for the town government of such town as are now authorized by statute to be exercised and made at the annual town meeting of any town.

SECTION 3. Notice of such town meeting shall be given by the posting of a copy of this act in at least five public places in said town of Sioux Creek at least five days before the time of holding such meeting, which notice may be posted in such town by any qualified elector thereof, who shall make a proper affidavit of such posting and file the same on the day of said first town meeting with the inspectors chosen to conduct such meeting.

SECTION 4. For the purpose of the election hereinbefore provided, the qualified electors of said town of Sioux Creek, assembled at the place aforesaid, shall, between the hours of nine and eleven o'clock in the forenoon of said day, choose three of their number to act as inspectors of said election and one as clerk, and such inspectors shall, before entering upon their respective duties, severally take the usual oath of office and file the same with their returns. The inspectors shall canvass and return the votes cast at such election in all respects as provided by law for inspectors at an annual town meeting.

SECTION 5. When such town meeting shall have been held as herein provided, and the town officers as required by law duly elected, the said town of Sioux Creek shall be deemed to be, and shall be duly organized, and shall possess all the rights, powers and liabilities of other towns in this state.

SECTION 6. The assets and liabilities of the towns of Dallas and Dovre as heretofore constituted, shall be proportioned between and to the towns of Sioux Creek, Dallas and Dovre, according to the provisions of section 66.03 of the statutes, and the liability, if any, so proportioned, and the credits and assets, if any, so proportioned, shall be paid according to said section.

SECTION 7. On the sixteenth day of April, 1929, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, the town boards of the said towns of Dallas, Dovre and Sioux Creek shall meet at the regular meeting place of the town of Dallas for the purpose of making a settlement between the said towns according to the provisions of this act; and at such meeting or at any adjourned or subsequent meeting held by said town boards, any three of the supervisors shall have full power and authority to send for any persons, books, papers and records necessarily involved in the settlement between said towns. The town clerk of the said town of Dallas shall act as the clerk of such joint meeting and the town clerks of the town of Dovre and the town of Sioux Creek shall be present and assist. Sufficient duplicates or copies of all proceedings had shall be made in order that each town may have at least one copy for the use and information of such town clerk and town board thereof. Each town shall be chargeable with the expense and for the services and per diem of its own officers only.

SECTION 8. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved March 22, 1929.
