

from rents of real estate upon which said company, corporation or association has paid the taxes assessed thereon, and excepting also premiums collected on policies of insurance and contracts for annuities. * * *

SECTION 2. If a license for the year beginning March 1, 1931, shall have been issued to any domestic life insurance company prior to the taking effect of this act, and such company shall have paid a lesser license fee than that fixed in subsection (1) of section 76.34, as amended in section 1 of this act, such company shall pay the difference between such fee and the amount paid, within thirty days after the taking effect of this act.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved March 19, 1931.

No. 92, S.]

[Published March 20, 1931.

CHAPTER 13.

AN ACT to appropriate a sum of money to pay for services, labor, material and general expenses incurred by the committee in charge of the inaugural services on January 5, 1931.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is appropriated from the general fund five hundred seventy-three dollars and twenty-five cents to pay for services, labor, material and general expenses incurred by the committee in charge of the inaugural ceremonies on January 5, 1931, this amount to be distributed as follows: Straus Printing Company for printing programs, badges and tickets, two hundred dollars; Westby Municipal Band for music, one hundred twenty-five dollars; Rentschler Floral Company for decorations, one hundred dollars; the Mozart Club for music, fifty dollars; Roman Stangler for transportation of band instruments, five dollars; the Milwaukee Electric Railway and Light Company, transportation, forty-eight dollars; Forbes Meagher Music Company, rental and drayage of piano, ten dollars; Hotel Loraine, meals for band, thirty-five dollars and twenty-five cents.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved March 19, 1931.