CHAPTER 326.

AN ACT to amend paragraph (b) of subsection (9) of section 157.11 of the statutes, relating to funds of cemetery associations.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Paragraph (b) of subsection (9) of section 157.11 of the statutes is amended to read: (157.11) (9) (b) Money received by an association for perpetual care shall be invested as provided in section 231.32, or in such other manner as may be approved by the county judge of the county or adjoining counties wherein the cemetery is located, or it may be deposited with the treasurer of the municipality nearest such cemetery, and such municipality shall pay said association annually interest on sums so deposited of not less than four per cent per annum. If such association is dissolved or becomes inoperative such municipality shall use the interest on such fund for the care and upkeep of such cemetery. Deposit shall be made and the income paid over from time to time, not less frequently than once each year, and receipts in triplicate shall be given, one filed with the clerk of the municipality, one with the association and one given to the person making the deposit. Deposits shall be of five dollars or multiple thereof. Records and receipts shall specify the lot for the care of which the deposit is made. Reports of moneys received for perpetual care shall be made annually by the trustees of such association to the county judge on the first day of July in each year. Failure to file such report for sixty days shall subject such trustees to a forfeiture of not less than ten nor more than twenty dollars, to be enforced as provided in chapter 288 of the statutes. Such trustees may also be cited to file such report by such judge and the expense of serving the citation shall be paid by such trustees and disobedience of such citation may be enforced as a contempt. This * * * paragraph shall apply to all organizations that maintain cemeteries except municipalities, but shall not be effective in counties having population of one hundred and fifty thousand or more, except as to cemeteries wholly within fourth class cities.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

CHAPTER 327.

AN ACT to create section 205.30 of the statutes, relating to insurance of rejected workmen's compensation risks.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is added to the statutes to read: 205.30 (1) It shall be the duty of insurers carrying workmen's compensation insurance in this state, and members of the workmen's compensation bureau, established pursuant to sections 205.12 and 205.13, to accept any workmen's compensation risk which shall have been tendered to and rejected by any three members of said bureau, in the manner herein provided.

(2) When any such rejected risk is called to the attention of said bureau and it appears that said risk is in good faith entitled to coverage, said bureau shall fix the initial premium therefor, and,
