

throughout the state, propose an amendment to any part of this constitution, except article I. If any amendment proposed pursuant to this section is ratified by a majority of the electors voting thereon, it shall become a part of the constitution thirty days after the election at which approved. If more than one amendment is proposed in the same petition, such proposal shall be submitted in such manner that the people may vote for or against each amendment separately.

2. Except as otherwise provided in this section, the provisions of section 1 of article IV of this constitution relating to the enactment of laws by initiative shall apply to and govern the adoption of amendments to the constitution under this section.

[Jt. Res. No. 52, A.]

[Published May 26, 1931.]

No. 91, 1931.

JOINT RESOLUTION

To amend section 1 of article III of the constitution, relating to suffrage, to eliminate obsolete provisions.

Resolved by the Assembly, the Senate concurring, That section 1 of Article III of the constitution is amended to read: (Article III) Section 1. Every * * * person, of the age of twenty-one years or upwards, belonging to either of the following classes, who shall have resided in the state for one year next preceding any election, and in the election district where he offers to vote such time as may be prescribed by the legislature, not exceeding thirty days, shall be deemed a qualified elector at such election:

* * * (1) Citizens of the United States.

* * *

* * * (2) Persons of Indian blood, who have once been declared by law of congress to be citizens of the United States, any subsequent law of congress to the contrary notwithstanding.

* * * (3) * * * The legislature may at any time extend, by law, the right of suffrage to persons not herein enumerated; but no such law shall be in force until the same shall have been submitted to a vote of the people at a general election, and approved by a majority of all the votes cast on that question at such election; and provided further, that * * * the legislature may provide for the registration of electors, and prescribe proper rules and regulations therefor. Be it further

Resolved, That this proposed amendment be and is hereby referred to the legislature to be chosen at the next general election and that the same be published for three months preceding the time of holding such election.

[Jt. Res. No. 118, A.]

[Published June 23, 1931.]

No. 112, 1931.

JOINT RESOLUTION

To amend section 3a of article XI of the constitution, relating to the acquisition of lands for public improvements and conveyance of excess lands acquired in connection with such improvements.

Resolved by the Assembly, the Senate concurring, That section 3a of article XI of the constitution be amended to read: (Article XI) Section 3a. The state or any of its counties or cities, either separately or jointly, may acquire by gift, purchase, or condemnation lands for establishing, laying out, widening, enlarging, extending, and maintaining memorial grounds, streets, squares, parkways, boulevards, parks, artificial lakes and surrounding lands, playgrounds, sites for public buildings, and reservations in and about and along and leading to any or all of the same; and after the establishment, layout, and completion of such improvements, may convey any such real estate thus acquired and not necessary for such improvements, with reservations concerning the future use and occupation of such real estate, so as to protect such public works and improvements, and their environs, and to preserve the view, appearance, light, air, and usefulness of such public works. Be it further