CHAPTER 111.

AN ACT to repeal and recreate 208.13 of the statutes, relating to control of disbursements of fraternal benefit societies.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 208.13 of the statutes is repealed and recreated to read:

208.13 DISBURSEMENTS CONTROLLED. Every provision in the regulations adopted by any mutual benefit society for payments by its members shall distinctly state the purpose of the same and the proportion thereof which may be used for expenses. Except as otherwise provided in this section, no part of the money collected for mortuary or disability purposes or to mature the contracts or of the net accretions thereto shall be used for expenses. Every society may use for expenses any surrender charge made pursuant to the provisions of section 208.17 and total payments on all contracts during the first year of membership over the terminal reserves specified in the contracts or by-laws. Mortality savings on contracts which have been in force more than one year and gains on interest disclosed by the annual valuation report as of December 31 in any year may be used in the ensuing year to pay expenses of medical examinations, inspection of risks and investment expenses.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

CHAPTER 112.

AN ACT to repeal and recreate 152.07 (2) and (4); to create 152.07 (8); and to amend 152.07 (5), (6) and (7) of the statutes, relating to the practice of dental hygiene and educational requirements and providing a penalty.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Subsections (2) and (4) of section 152.07 of the statutes are repealed, and recreated to read:

(152.07) (2) (a) A certificate shall be issued to him who satisfactorily passes the practical demonstrations prescribed by the state board of dental examiners and a written examination, including anatomy, histology, physiology, bacteriology, dental pathology, preventative dentistry, and such other subjects or demonstrations relating to dental hygiene as the board deems necessary.

(b) An applicant shall file proof satisfactory to the board that he is a citizen of the United States of America and has a general education equivalent to graduation from a high school or academy in Wisconsin offering a 4-year curriculum beyond the eighth grade and that he is a graduate of a training school for dental hygienists, approved and recognized by the board, having a course of not less than 2 years of 8 months each. A remittance of $10 shall accompany his application, returnable to the applicant only if from sickness or other good cause he is unable to complete the examination. Applicants who have graduated prior to July 1, 1941, shall file proof satisfactory to the board that their educational requirements at the time of their graduation equaled those then required by the Wisconsin state board of dental examiners.

(4) Certified dental hygienists may be employed by boards of education or public or private schools, county boards, boards of health, or public or charitable institutions, operating only under the direct supervision of one or more licensed dentists as
