CHAPTER 2.

AN ACT to repeal and recreate section 1 of chapter 340 of the private and local laws of 1867, relating to the board of directors of Taylor orphan asylum.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1 of chapter 340 of the private and local laws of 1867 is repealed and recreated to read:

(Chapter 340, Private and Local Laws of 1867) Section 1. Hereafter the board of directors of the Taylor orphan asylum shall consist of 15 persons, not less than 5 of whom shall be women and not less than 4 shall be men, the other 6 may be men or women, but all directors shall be elected by the women members of the board, and by them only, and any vacancy in such board shall be filled by appointment made by a majority of such women members. The term of office of each member of the existing board of directors, or of the board, as it exists at the time of the annual meeting in 1941, shall expire at that time, at which time all directors shall be elected for the following terms: one-third for 1 year, one-third for 2 years, and one-third for 3 years, and thereafter each director shall be elected for a term of 3 years, except when a vacancy occurs on the board and appointment is made for the unexpired term. Five members of the board of directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved January 30, 1941.

CHAPTER 3.

AN ACT to amend 35.63 of the statutes, relating to the official state paper.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 35.63 of the statutes is amended to read:

such statement and notice to be published in a newspaper printed in his county, if there be one, and if there be none, then in a newspaper printed in an adjoining county, if there be one, but if there be no newspaper printed in the same or an adjoining county, then such statement and notice shall be published in the official state paper, which statement and notice shall in all cases be published once in each week for two successive weeks prior to said first Tuesday in October, and such treasurer shall also, at least * * * 2 weeks previous to said day, cause to be posted up copies of said statement and notice in at least * * * 4 public places in such county, one of which copies shall be posted up in some conspicuous place in his office; but it shall be unlawful for any county treasurer to publish such statement and notice in any newspaper in his county that has not been regularly and continuously published in such county once in each calendar week for at least * * * 2 years immediately before the date of such notice, if there be a newspaper which has been so published in such county; and any county treasurer who shall violate the provisions of this subsection shall forfeit a sum equal to the fees allowed by law for such publications, to be sued for and recovered in a civil action brought in the name of the state of Wisconsin, which penalty shall be paid into the school fund. The tax sale for the years * * * 1941 and 1942 which would regularly be held on the second Tuesday in June pursuant to section 74.33 shall be held on the first Tuesday in October, * * * 1941 and 1942, respectively. All provisions of this section for the purpose of such sale shall supersede all inconsistent provisions of subsection (1) of section 74.33.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved January 30, 1941.
