CHAPTER 325.

AN ACT to create 20.60 (32) and 100.07 of the statutes, relating to examination and audit of payments for milk in fluid markets or where the producer price varies according to different uses, and making an appropriation.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Subsection (32) of section 20.60 of the statutes is created to read:

(20.60) (32) All money received under section 100.07 as a nonlapsible appropriation for the execution of functions pursuant to the provisions of said section.

SECTION 2. Section 100.07 of the statutes is created to read:

100.07 MILK PAYMENTS; AUDITS. (1) Persons receiving milk from producers for fluid distribution or under contract, arrangement or practice whereby the price to producers is to vary according to the disposition of the milk for different uses, such as for fluid consumption, fluid cream, relief, manufacturing, or other purposes, shall keep adequate records and accounts and make reports thereof as prescribed by the department. The department shall at frequent intervals examine all such accounts and audit particularly the receipts of milk or cream from producers, the disposition of such milk or cream with special reference to producers' prices and payment of the producers, which the department may enforce, by action or other lawful means, on behalf of and for the benefit of the producers.

(2) Each such person shall deduct from the price to producers an amount sufficient to administer this section, to be the same for all, and not to exceed one-half cent per 100 pounds of milk received or its equivalent. Amounts so deducted are trust funds and shall be paid to the department.

(3) As used in this section: "price" includes the amount to be charged or paid, and the proceeds to be delivered, and shall be money or property presently paid, delivered, or vested indefeasibly in the person entitled thereto, as the contract, arrangement or practice shall provide. "Pay" and its variants includes, without limitation, delivery of the price, as herein defined, to the person entitled thereto.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved June 25, 1941.
