CHAPTER 10.

AN ACT relating to expert and clerical assistants or other expenses for the joint committee on finance, and making an appropriation therefor.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The joint committee on finance of the legislature of 1943 is empowered to employ trained experts in accounting and statistics, and such other assistants as may be necessary; such experts and assistants shall be exempt from the provisions of chapter 16 and section 13.14 (1) of the statutes.

SECTION 2. There is appropriated out of the general fund for the necessary expenses of the joint committee on finance of the legislature of 1943 and to carry out the provisions of this act not to exceed $4,000, to be paid upon the approval and order of the chairman of the senate and assembly divisions of the joint committee on finance, said appropriation to be available for any bills incurred for help or other expenses by the joint committee on finance since the date of its organization.

Approved March 10, 1943.
