CHAPTER 218.

AN ACT to amend section 5 (1) (a) of chapter 201, laws of 1937, relating to employes' retirement systems in counties having a population of 500,000 or more.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5 (1) (a) of chapter 201, laws of 1937, is amended to read:

(Chapter 201, Laws of 1937) Section 5 (1) (a). Any member in active service who has attained the age of 60 shall be retired upon filing with the board a request for retirement, on a form provided by the board for that purpose, stating a date not less than 30 nor more than 90 days subsequent to the filing thereof when the retirement is to be effective. Any member in active service who has attained the age of 70 on the date of establishment of the retirement system or who thereafter attains the age of 70 shall be retired forthwith, unless he shall be permitted to continue in the service by request of the board of supervisors of the county for a period of not more than 2 years next following such request or a renewal thereof, provided that the compulsory retirement provision hereinabove set forth shall not take effect until January 1, 1941; provided further, that during the national emergency, declared by the President on September 8, 1939 to exist, the county board, may, whenever it shall deem that the public service will be promoted thereby, and subject to such regulations as said board may prescribe, provide for the continuance in the service of members after said retirement age of 70 and the reinstatement without examination of any kind of those retired under said compulsory retirement provisions, in cases where the member is not disabled and consents thereto. Whenever a person compulsorily retired is restored to active service as provided in this section, his retirement allowance shall cease and he shall again become a member of the retirement system and shall contribute thereafter at the same rate at which he contributed prior to his compulsory retirement. He shall thereupon be entitled to all prior service and creditable service credits which he had at the time of his original retirement. Such person shall be compulsorily retired at the end of such national emer- gency or may be permitted to retire voluntarily at any time. His retirement allowance shall then be calculated in accordance with chapter 201, laws of 1937, as amended by chapter 144, laws of 1941.

SECTION 2. If any section, subsection, paragraph, or other provision of this act, or its application to any person or circumstance shall be held unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the constitutionality of any other section, subsection, paragraph, or other provision, or its application to other persons or circumstances.
