

(5) When the suspended fiduciary ceases to be engaged in war service he may be reinstated as executor, administrator, guardian or testamentary trustee if any of the duties of such office remain unexecuted, upon application to the court and upon such notice as the presiding judge thereof may direct. If the suspended fiduciary is reinstated the court shall thereupon remove his successor and revoke his letters and make such other order or decree as justice requires, but such removal and revocation of letters shall not bar the successor from subsequently qualifying as a fiduciary in accordance with the provisions of the will or if for any reason it thereafter becomes necessary that a fiduciary be appointed.

CHAPTER 284.

AN ACT to create 69.60 (1a) and (8) of the statutes, relating to the issuance of birth certificates for certain adopted children.

69.60 (1a) and (8) of the statutes are created to read:

69.60 (1a) In case of the adoption of any child born within the United States and for which adopted child no birth certificate is of record at the place or in the state of birth, upon information submitted from the place or state of birth of said child that the birth is not of record the state registrar of vital statistics shall cause a certificate of the birth of such child to be filled out, signed by himself or his authorized representative. The place of birth of said child shall be given in said birth certificate as the place at which the adoption order was made. The date of birth in said birth certificate shall appear thereon as found and determined by the county court making the order for adoption. In the certification to this certificate and over his signature reference shall be made by the registrar to this section of the statutes by number only. In all other respects the certificate shall be the same as other birth certificates and shall contain nothing else to differentiate it therefrom. Such birth certificate when issued shall be of the same force and effect as all other birth certificates issued by the state registrar of vital statistics.

(8) Whenever a child born within the United States shall have been legally adopted by residents of this state pursuant to the laws of any state, the adoptive parent may file with the state registrar a copy of the adoption proceedings and a copy of the original birth certificate, and thereupon the state registrar shall issue a new certificate as provided by subsections (2) and (5).

CHAPTER 285.

AN ACT to amend chapter 244, laws of 1921, section 9, 1. as last amended by chapter 96, laws of 1933, relating to the municipal court in Fond du Lac county, except the city and town of Ripon.

Chapter 244, laws of 1921, section 9, 1. as last amended by chapter 96, laws of 1933, is amended to read:

(Chapter 244, Laws of 1921) Section 9, 1. In all civil actions in said court when no demand is made for a jury trial, the procedure shall be as provided for by the statutes for trials of civil actions in justice court, except when the defendant shall be in default. If the defendant shall be in default and shall have been personally served with the summons, judgment may be entered by the municipal judge as provided for by statute in cases of default in circuit courts. Default judgments may be so entered in all of the actions in which default judgment may be entered in the circuit court providing this court shall have full jurisdiction as herein provided. In all actions in which a jury is demanded, the manner for the selection of the jury shall be as follows: The jury commissioners for the county of Fond du Lac shall provide from time to time, as may be necessary, a list of names to be drawn from the body of the county, except the city and town of Ripon, to serve as jurors in said municipal court; and in making such list, shall put thereon only the names of such
