CHAPTER 502.

AN ACT to amend 74.33 (1) (a) of the statutes, relating to the printing of lists and notices of delinquent lands.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of section 74.33 of the statutes is amended to read:

(74.33) (1) (a) The county treasurer shall, on the second Monday of September in each year, list all lands upon which the taxes have been returned as delinquent and which then remain unpaid, except public lands held on contract and lands mortgaged to the state, with an accompanying notice stating that so much of each tract described in said list as may be necessary therefor will, on the third Tuesday in October next and the succeeding days, be sold by him at public auction at a named public place, at the county seat, for the payment of taxes and interest thereon. He shall cause such list and notice to be published in a newspaper printed in his county, and if there be none, then in a newspaper printed in an adjoining county. If there is no newspaper printed in the same or an adjoining county, then such list and notice shall be published in the official state paper. Such list and notice shall be published once in each week for 2 successive weeks prior to said third Tuesday in October. As used in this paragraph the word "printed" means the mechanical or physical act of impressing letters, figures, or characters upon paper or other similar yielding surface. The treasurer shall also, at least 2 weeks previous to said day, cause copies of said list and notice to be posted in at least 4 public places in such county, one of which copies shall be posted in some conspicuous place in his office.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.
