The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

215.33 (13) (c) and (d) of the statutes are created to read:

215.33 (13) (c) At the time of the order for final distribution the banking commission may make application to the circuit court having jurisdiction of such building and loan association in liquidation for an order determining what books and records are to be kept and what destroyed, stating in such application its recommendations thereon. The court shall thereupon enter an order determining what books and records are to be kept and what may be destroyed and fixing an appropriate period of time in either event. All books and records ordered kept shall be kept in a manner and place designated by the court, for such period of time as the court may direct, subject to the further order of the court. The expense of keeping any records ordered to be kept shall be paid out of the funds of the liquidation before final distribution is made. All books and records ordered destroyed shall be delivered to the banking commission to be so destroyed at the time prescribed by the court or to be kept for such further period of time as the commission may direct.

(d) Prior to the order for final distribution the special deputy commissioner of banking shall cause notice to be given by advertisement in such newspaper or newspapers as the court may direct, weekly, for three consecutive weeks, calling on all persons who may have claims against such building and loan association arising during the course of the liquidation proceedings, to present same to the special deputy commissioner of banking and make legal proof thereof at a place and within a time, not earlier than the last day of publication, to be therein specified. Proof of such notice shall be filed with the clerk of the circuit court. The special deputy commissioner of banking may accept or reject any claims so filed. Any party interested may file written objections to any such claim with the special deputy commissioner of banking, and in such event said claim shall be determined by the court after such notice to all interested parties as the court may prescribe. In the event of the rejection of any such claim by the special deputy commissioner of banking without objection thereto having been filed by any other interested party, such claim shall be forever barred unless suit thereon be brought within three months after notice of such rejection by registered mail shall have been given to the claimant by the special deputy commissioner of banking.
