

that on a certain date a hearing will be held by the governing body as to whether the service in question shall be performed at the cost of the property owner, at which hearing anyone interested will be heard.

(b) Such special charges shall not be payable in installments. If not paid within the period fixed by the governing body, such a delinquent special charge shall become a lien as provided in subsection (15), as of the date of such delinquency, and shall be extended upon the current or next tax roll in the same manner as provided in subsection (15).

(17) If any part or parts of this section shall be held to be unconstitutional, such unconstitutionality shall not affect the validity of the remaining parts of this section, and in such case this section shall be read as if such unconstitutional parts thereof had not been inserted therein.

(18) If any special assessment or special charge levied pursuant to this section shall be held invalid because such statute shall be found to be unconstitutional, the governing body of such municipality may thereafter reassess such special assessment or special charge pursuant to the provisions of any applicable law.

CHAPTER 270.

AN ACT to amend 27.06 of the statutes, relating to mill tax for county parks and powers of the county board.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

27.06 of the statutes is amended to read:

27.06 The county board may annually, at the same time that other county taxes are levied, levy a tax upon the taxable property of such county of * * * two-tenths of a mill upon each dollar of the assessed valuation of the taxable property upon which other county taxes are levied and collected; provided, that a larger levy may be made for this purpose in counties having a population of 250,000 or more. The entire amount of such special tax shall be collected as other taxes are collected and paid into the county treasury as a separate and distinct fund, to be paid out only upon the order of the county park commission for the purchase of land and the payment of expenses incurred in carrying on the work of the commission. Any part of said fund, except $5,000 annually, may be transferred to the general fund of the county treasury whenever county bonds for the purchase of land have been issued by the county and placed at the disposal of the county park commission, or whenever the county has assumed an indebtedness on its behalf, equal to the amount of money to be transferred. In every county having a population of 300,000 or more, the county park commission shall be subject to * * * section 59.84.
