

No. 238, A.]

[Published May 2, 1945.]

CHAPTER 95.

AN ACT to amend 85.01 (4) (hb) of the statutes, relating to temporary permits for the operation of automobiles by persons in the military service while on furlough.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

85.01 (4) (hb) of the statutes is amended to read:

85.01 (4) (hb) The motor vehicle owned or designated by any person engaged in the active military service of the United States or its allies may be operated on the highways of this state by any such person while on furlough and for a period not to exceed 30 days without complying with the registration provisions of chapter 85, provided * * * such person makes application for a temporary permit for such operation to the commission of the motor vehicle department in such form and furnishes such proof as the commissioner may require. There shall be no fee charged for such permit.

Approved April 30, 1945.

No. 251, A.]

[Published May 2, 1945.]

CHAPTER 96.

AN ACT to continue the functioning of the joint interim committee on postwar planning created by section 1 of chapter 417, laws of 1943, and making an appropriation.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

The joint interim committee on postwar planning created and appointed under section 1 of chapter 417, laws of 1943, with its present membership, is continued to the next regular session of the legislature and the committee is to continue to have the same functions as assigned to it and be subject to the same provisions as under said chapter for the purpose of completing its duties thereunder except that it is to make its report of its findings, conclusions and recommendations to the next regular session of the legislature and it may submit with such report, drafts of such bills as it may deem advisable. There is appropriated from the general fund to said joint interim committee for the execution of its functions the unexpended balance remaining from the appropriation made to it by chapter 417, laws of 1943, section 1 (8).

Approved April 30, 1945.

No. 258, A.]

[Published May 2, 1945.]

CHAPTER 97.

AN ACT to amend 176.62 (2) of the statutes, relating to the confiscation of intoxicating liquor or fermented malt beverage. The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

176.62 (2) of the statutes is amended to read:

176.62 (2) The court, upon the conviction of any person for owning, possessing, keeping, storing, manufacturing, selling, distributing or transporting intoxicating liquor or fermented malt beverages in violation of this chapter or chapter 66 or chapter 139, shall, in case the person convicted be the owner thereof, order such intoxicating liquor or fermented malt beverages which was seized in connection with such violation to be destroyed, except as hereinafter provided, and in such case, shall order the personal property which was seized in connection with the violation to be sold at public auction, or if a sale is not practicable, to be destroyed by the state treasurer or his duly authorized agents. The state treasurer or such agent, after deducting the expense of keeping the property and the costs of the sale, shall pay all liens according to their priorities, which are established, by intervention or otherwise, in the proceedings for conviction as being bona fide and as having been created without the lienor having notice that such property was being used or was to be used in connection with such violation, and shall pay the balance of the proceeds into the state treasury where said balance shall be credited to the common school fund. All such liens against property sold under the provisions of this subsection shall be transferred from the property to the proceeds of the sale of the property. No motor vehicle or motor boat confiscated pursuant to this section shall be sold within a period of 30 days after date of seizure. In the event any intoxicating