

WISCONSIN SESSION LAWS, 1947

---

No. 1, S.]

[Published January 18, 1947.

CHAPTER 1.

AN ACT relating to transferring employes of state departments to the 1947 legislature for employment in legislative positions.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

During the 1947 session of the legislature employes of any state department may be transferred to the legislature for employment in legislative positions and shall receive compensation for their services in such employment at rates prescribed by law for such legislative positions. Such transfer and employment by the legislature shall apply to both male and female employes. Employes so transferred and employed shall retain uninterrupted their civil service rating, sick leave, vacation and other rights under chapter 16 of the statutes and after termination of their employment in such legislative positions shall be returned to the respective departments from which they were transferred for resumption of their regular employment.

Approved January 16, 1947.

---

No. 124, S.]

[Published February 14, 1947.

CHAPTER 2.

AN ACT to create 111.05 (3m) of the statutes, relating to run-off elections in determining collective bargaining representatives.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

111.05 (3m) of the statutes is created to read:

111.05 (3m) Whenever an election has been conducted pursuant to subsection (3) in which the name of more than one proposed representative appears on the ballot and results in no conclusion, the board may, in its discretion, if requested by any