No. 175, S.]

[Published May 29, 1947:

CHAPTER 171.

AN ACT to create 48.24 of the statutes, relating to authorizing the juvenile court to excuse school attendance.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

48.24 of the statutes is created to read:

48.24 EXCUSING SCHOOL ATTENDANCE. The juvenile court upon written application and notice to the city, village or county superintendent and upon his consent and a showing of reasons satisfactory to the court, whether for causes or reasons specified in the statutes or not, may excuse a child from attending school (except a school to which committed) where the child would otherwise be required to attend school; any such excuse granted shall be deemed as to such child for the time stated in the order, a waiver of any statutory provision requiring school attendance. No provision of this section modifies or abrogates any other provision of law authorizing the granting of excuses, from attending school, by an authority other than the juvenile court.
