CHAPTER 260.

AN ACT to amend 35.69 of the statutes, relating to fees for publishing state legal notices.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

35.69 of the statutes is amended to read:

35.69 The compensation to the official state paper and other papers for the original printing of the laws, for reprinting any law or for printing all election and other notices, all accounts, fiscal statements, advertisements, proclamations or other matter required to be published at the expense of the state shall equal the amount regularly received by such newspaper for the same amount of advertising space, not exceeding, however, * * * $1 per folio for the first insertion and * * * 70 cents per folio for each subsequent insertion. The rates in the case of other papers shall be the same as those provided from time to time for election notices in section 6.82 of the statutes. The price in full for the publication in any paper of advertisements of the sale of school, university or other public lands shall not exceed * * * 70 cents each description whenever the advertisement contains 15 descriptions or more. All expenditures for transportation, communication, and delivery incidental to any such printing shall be borne by the paper doing the same.

Approved June 12, 1947.
