CHAPTER 32.

AN ACT to amend 14.71 (8) of the statutes, relating to reimbursement of state employes for moving expense.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

14.71 (8) of the statutes is amended to read:

14.71 (8) Whenever any department head or officer shall determine and order that any employe in the classified service shall be relocated or reassigned to another place of employment within the state, and thereby require a change of residence, he shall authorize such employe to be reimbursed for the actual and necessary expense of transporting the immediate members of his family and household effects to such other place of employment. No such reimbursement shall be granted to any employe reporting to his first place of employment. Not more than one allowance not exceeding * * * $150 for such reimbursement shall be granted to any employe in a calendar year. Such reimbursement for transportation expense shall be allowed and paid in the same manner as other traveling expenses.

Approved March 30, 1949.
