CHAPTER 85.

AN ACT to amend 340.485 (1), (6) and (10) of the statutes, relating to sex crimes and the examination, commitment and parole of sex criminals.

340.485 (1), (6) and (10) of the statutes is amended to read:

340.485 (1) If a person is convicted under ss. 340.46 * * *, 340.48, 351.34 * * * or 351.41, the court shall commit him to the department of public welfare for a pre-sentence social, physical and mental examination. The court and all public officials shall make available to the department upon its request all pertinent data in their possession in respect to the case.

(6) If it appears from said report that the department recommends specialized treatment for his mental * * * or physical aberrations, the court shall order the proper county authorities to bring him before the court at county expense and shall either place him on probation under the provisions of ch. 57 with the requirement as a condition of such probation, that he receive outpatient treatment in such manner as the court shall prescribe, or commit him to the department under this section. If he is committed to the department the court shall order him conveyed by the proper county authorities, at the expense of the county to the sex deviate facility, established by the department.

(10) Any person committed as provided in this section may be paroled if it appears to the satisfaction of the department after recommendation by a special review board, appointed by the department (a majority of whose members shall not be connected with the department) that he is capable of making an acceptable adjustment in society. * * * The department may promulgate regulations for parole, revocation of parole, and the supervision of parolees.

Approved April 24, 1953.
