

CHAPTER 15

AN ACT to amend 35.91 of the statutes, relating to the cost and sale price of Wisconsin Statutes.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

35.91 of the statutes is amended to read:

35.91 The director of purchases shall * * * file in his office a statement of the number of copies of each book, report, or other document printed for the state by the printer which he is required to reserve for future distributions according to law; also a statement of the cost, exclusive of the author's and other editorial work, of each such publication. * * * He may sell, at said cost price, to any person any such publication out of any surplus on hand beyond the reservation so required, except that the latest edition of the Wisconsin Statutes shall be sold at * * * a price (calculated to the nearest dollar) to be fixed by said director, based on the cost hereinbefore described plus 75 per cent of the revisor's expenditures under s. 20.64 (1) during the preceding biennium. The director is authorized to sell older editions of the Wisconsin Statutes at reduced prices to be fixed by him.

Approved March 24, 1955.
