CHAPTER 600

AN ACT to repeal sections 2476, 2477 and 2478; and to repeal and recreate sections 2475 and 2479 of chapter 140, laws of 1951, relating to juries and jurors in connection with the additional jurisdiction of the county court of Dodge county.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 140, laws of 1951, section 2475, is repealed and recreated to read:

(Chapter 140, laws of 1951) Section 2475. At least 2 weeks before each term of the county court a separate panel of 36 names shall be selected by the clerk from the same list, and in like manner, as persons are selected for jury service in the circuit court for the county. At the time any action or proceeding is set down for trial, if it be one triable by a jury, the court shall direct the clerk to draw from the list of persons on the panel for jury service for the current term of court, in the presence of the judge, 24 jurors. If the court is satisfied that there are additional adverse parties in interest he may order additional jurors selected. The court shall issue a venire for the persons so selected, returnable at the time fixed for trial of the action. If any of the persons selected be excused before the date of trial, other persons shall in like manner be selected, and summoned for service. On the day of the trial, the jury shall be selected from the persons summoned as in the manner prescribed for the selection of a jury in circuit court.

SECTION 2. Chapter 140, laws of 1951, sections 2476, 2477 and 2478 are repealed.

SECTION 3. Chapter 140, laws of 1951, section 2479, is repealed and recreated to read:

(Chapter 140, laws of 1951) Section 2479. All jurors summoned and attending such county court shall receive the same compensation therefor payable in like manner as is or may be provided by law for like service in circuit court.

Approved August 14, 1957.
