CHAPTER 515

AN ACT to create chapter 589, laws of 1921, section 1 (71) thereby amending chapter 589, laws of 1921 (69), as created by chapter 704, laws of 1951, relating to authority of cities of the first class to increase retirement benefits for Milwaukee city policemen.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Chapter 589, laws of 1921, section 1 (71) is created to read:

(Chapter 589, laws of 1921) Section 1. (71) Notwithstanding any other provision contained in this chapter, and notwithstanding any other statute, and commencing on the effective date of this subsection (1961), every city of the first class may increase the annuities and other benefits provided in chapter 589, laws of 1921, as amended, for all policemen who have retired from active service and who shall have attained the age of 65 years, and for all widows who shall have attained the age of 62 years, and for children under 18 years of age who are entitled to benefits from the fund, provided that such increase of annuities and other benefits shall be based upon amended contract between such city and such retired policemen and by or for such other beneficiaries.

Approved September 22, 1961.
