CHAPTER 411

AN ACT to amend 189.01 (3) of the statutes, relating to delegation of the duties and authority of the director of the state department of securities, and creating the position of deputy director in the classified service.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

189.01 (3) of the statutes is amended to read:

189.01 (3) The director shall appoint a deputy director and such other officers and assistants as may be necessary for the proper discharge of his duties and functions, and they shall be * * * under the classified service. The director may designate any such deputy director, officer or assistant to perform any duty or power assigned to him by the director while he is absent from the office. Acting under such designation shall not affect the status of such deputy director, officer or assistant under * * * the classified service.

Approved December 9, 1963.
