CHAPTER 452

AN ACT to amend 63.38 of the statutes, relating to impersonation in applications, registrations or examinations under the merit system in cities of the first class.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

63.38 of the statutes is amended to read:

63.38 No person or officer shall wilfully and corruptly, by himself or in co-operation with one or more other persons, defeat, deceive or obstruct any person in respect to his or her right of examination, or corruptly or falsely mark, grade, estimate or report upon the examination or proper standing of any person examined hereunder, or aid in so doing or wilfully or corruptly make any false representations concerning the same or concerning the person examined, or wilfully or corruptly furnish to any person any special or secret information for the purpose either of improving or injuring the prospects or chances of any person so examined, or to be examined, of being appointed, employed or promoted, or personate any other person, or permit or aid in any manner any other person to personate him or her, in connection with any examination, or registration or application or request to be examined or registered.

Approved December 24, 1963.
