

CHAPTER 346

AN ACT to amend 102.03 (1) (c) 1; and to create 66.069 (2) (d) of the statutes, relating to agreements between municipal utilities for mutual aid in the event of an emergency or disaster and assuring workmen's compensation coverage for their employes in such cases.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. 66.069 (2) (d) of the statutes is created to read:

66.069 (2) (d) Any town, village or city owning a public utility, or the board of any municipal utility appointed under s. 66.068, may enter into agreements with any other such towns, villages or cities, or any other such boards of municipal utilities, for mutual aid in the event of an emergency or disaster in any of their respective service areas. Such agreements may include, but are not limited to, provisions for the movement of employes and equipment in and between the service areas of the various participating municipalities for the purpose of rendering such aid and, for the reimbursement of a municipality rendering such aid by the municipality receiving the aid.

SECTION 2. 102.03 (1) (c) 1 of the statutes is amended to read:

102.03 (1) (c) 1. Where, at the time of the injury, the employe is performing service growing out of and incidental to his employment. Every employe going to and from his employment in the ordinary and usual way, while on the premises of his employer, or while in the immediate vicinity thereof if the injury results from an occurrence on the premises, shall be deemed to be performing service growing out of and incidental to his employment; and so shall any fireman or municipal utility employe responding to a call for assistance outside the limits of his city or village, unless such response is in violation of law. The premises of his employer shall be deemed to include also the premises of any other person on whose premises service is being performed.

Approved November 3, 1965.
