CHAPTER 131, LAWS OF 1967

AN ACT to amend 101.31 (7) (c); and to repeal and recreate 101.31 (9) (c) of the statutes, relating to certificates of authorization for corporations employing architects or professional engineers.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. 101.31 (7) (c) of the statutes is amended to read:

101.31 (7) (c) 1. A corporation desiring a certificate of authorization shall file an application with the board on forms provided by the board, listing the names and addresses of all officers and directors, and all individuals registered to practice architecture or professional engineering in this state who will practice architecture or professional engineering in this state for the corporation and other relevant information required by the board. This form shall also accompany the ~~annual~~ biennial renewal fee. If there is a change in any of these persons during the ~~year~~ biennium, the change shall be reported on the same type of form, and filed with the board within 30 days after the effective date of the change. The board shall issue a certificate of authorization ~~effective for 2 years from the date of issuance~~ to a corporation complying with this paragraph upon payment of a certification fee of $50. ~~The biennial renewal fee is $25.~~ This paragraph does not apply to corporations exempt under sub. (9) (c) and (e).

2. All certificates of authorization issued prior to January 31, 1967, shall expire on January 31, 1969; all certificates of authorization issued subsequent to January 31, 1967, and prior to the effective date of this subdivision shall expire on January 31, 1970; all certificates of authorization issued subsequent to the effective date of this subdivision shall expire on the last day of the month of January of the 2nd year following their issuance or renewal and shall be invalid on such dates unless renewed. The secretary shall notify every corporation certified under this section of the date of the expiration of its certificate and the fee required for its renewal; such notice shall be mailed at least one month in advance of such expiration. Such certificate may be renewed for a period of 2 years during the month of January in which it expires by the payment of a fee of $25.

3. An expired certificate of authorization may be renewed after the month of January, effective to January 31 of the 2nd year following renewal, on payment of a fee of $25 plus $2 for each month or fraction of a month after its expiration, but the maximum fee for delayed renewal is $50.

SECTION 2. 101.31 (9) (c) of the statutes is repealed and recreated to read:

101.31 (9) (c) A public service company and its regular employes acting in its behalf where the professional engineering services rendered are in connection with its facilities which are subject to regulation, supervision and control by a commission of this state or of the federal government.

Approved November 1, 1967.
