

1971 Senate Bill 399

Date published:
November 6, 1971

CHAPTER 106, Laws of 1971

AN ACT to amend 35.85 (11m) of the statutes, relating to retention of public documents by the legislative reference bureau (suggested as remedial legislation by the legislative reference bureau).

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

35.85 (11m) of the statutes is amended to read:

35.85 (11m) The proper officers of the respective houses of the legislature ~~or~~, the department of administration or the department or agency of origin, as the case may be, shall promptly deliver to the legislative reference bureau, as printed or otherwise reproduced, 3 copies of each message, report, journal, ~~legislative bill~~, bulletin, circular or other public documents ~~document~~ of whatever character excluding forms, printed or otherwise reproduced in sufficient quantity at the expense of the state. ~~Three copies of all other printed publications, excluding forms, shall be delivered to the legislative reference bureau by the department, agency or commission of origin. At least one~~ One copy of each document received by the legislative reference bureau under this section subsection shall ~~become part of~~ be retained in the bureau's permanent, noncirculating ; reference collection of Wisconsin state documents for such period as the bureau deems reasonable.

---