Date published: May 13, 1975

CHAPTER 9, Laws of 1975

AN ACT to amend 443.01 (6) (j) of the statutes, relating to testing knowledge of barrier-free design in licensing examinations for architects and engineers.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

443.01 (6) (j) of the statutes is amended to read:

443.01 (6) (j) Written or written and oral examinations shall be held at such time and place as the examining board determines except as is provided in par. (b) 3. The scope of the examinations and the methods of procedure shall be prescribed by the examining board with special reference to the applicant's ability to design and supervise architectural or engineering work, which shall promote the public welfare and ~~insure~~ ensure the safety of life, health and property. The examination or examinations shall include questions which require applicants to demonstrate knowledge of the design needs of people with physical disabilities and of the relevant statutes and codes. Such questions shall be developed by the examining board in consultation with the department of industry, labor and human relations. A candidate failing an examination may, upon application and payment of the required reexamination fee, be examined again by the examining board. No restriction shall be placed on the number of times an unsuccessful candidate may present himself for reexamination, except that after failure of 3 reexaminations, the examining board may require a one-year waiting period before further reexamination.
