

1977 Assembly Bill 337

Date published: October 31, 1977

CHAPTER 127, Laws of 1977

AN ACT to repeal and recreate 108.04 (1) (g) of the statutes, relating to eligibility of business owners' relatives for unemployment compensation benefits.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. 108.04 (1) (g) of the statutes is repealed and recreated to read:

108.04 (1) (g) If an individual claims benefits based on the individual's employment by: 1) a partnership, if a one-half or greater ownership interest in the partnership is or during such employment was owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by the individual's spouse or child, or by the individual's parent if the individual is under age 18, or by a combination of 2 or more of them; or 2) a corporation, if one-half or more of the ownership interest, however designated or evidenced, in the corporation is or during such employment was owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by the individual's spouse or child, or by the individual's parent if the individual is under age 18, or by a combination of 2 or more of them; or 3) a corporation, if one-fourth or more of the ownership interest, however designated or evidenced, in the corporation is or during such employment was owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by the individual:

1. The corporate or partnership employer shall so inform the department on its reports as to such individual for benefit purposes; and
2. The individual shall so report, when claiming benefits; and
3. The individual's credit weeks based on such employment shall, if more than 5, be reduced to 5.

SECTION 2. Application. The changes in section 108.04 (1) (g) of the statutes effected by this act shall apply with respect to benefit years which begin during and after the 3rd week commencing after the week in which this act is published.
